Prayer

Father in heaven,

give us courage.

Give us comfort.

Let us know your compassion.

Help us to go,

even when we want to say, “No.”

Help us to trust, not in ourselves,

but that you are with us.

Give us the gift of your presence

now and forever.

And keep our eyes open to see all of your surprising ways.

In Jesus' name.

Amen.

~ Dr. Kevin DeYoung.

Sunday, (Nov 23): Pray for church leadership and congregation to be attentive and obedient to God's voice, akin to Moses at the burning bush, in their ministry and mission. Pray for courage and boldness for the church that needs strength to step into God's assignments despite uncertainty, trusting in God's presence and guidance. Pray for patient preparation just like Moses, that God will patiently shape and train the church leaders and members for their calling developing perseverance, humility, and character that honours God.

Monday, (Nov 24): Church – Pray for the upcoming Youth activity, “Come, Hang out with us”. We thank God for the opportunity arranged for the youth and other church members to connect with one another across different generations. Pray for good participation. May God be the centre of the fellowship, blessing the conversation and time together to understand better and encourage one another.

Tuesday, (Nov 25): Pray for hearts of gratitude and joy, recognizing God's blessings and fostering thanksgiving within the church while eliminating any spirit of complaint. Pray for greater faith and trust in God during difficulties, while humbly recognizing His sovereignty. Pray for healing and restoration in family relationships, the return of prodigal members, unity within the church family, and divine breakthroughs for those suffering from chronic illnesses.

Wednesday, (Nov 26): Pray for the Nation: Pray for the National Disaster Management Agency (NADMA) as it deals with the flooding by the La Nina phenomenon, which has caused heavy rain, thunderstorms, and strong winds throughout West and East Malaysia. Pray for peace and unity during the competitive Sabah State election on 29 November, 2025, seeking wisdom for voters, integrity for candidates, and a fair electoral process, aiming for leadership that fosters justice, peace, and progress for the diverse communities in Sabah. Pray for schools and educational institutions to focus on promoting humanity, morality, and character development, in response to concerns raised by Yang di-Pertuan Agong Sultan Ibrahim regarding recent serious criminal cases involving students.

Thursday, (Nov 27): TRAC – We praise God for the recently concluded 50th Session TRAC. We praise God for all that God is doing in our TRAC Churches. We pray for more people to come on board to partner God in all that He is doing. We especially pray for pastors with new pastoral appointments, pray for God's grace and strength as they make that transition to another church. Pray for their families to be able to settle into their new environment.

Friday, (Nov 28): Pray for God's mercy and protection as we often encounter heavy rainfall throughout the nation lately. Pray for the safety of all, particularly those residing in low-lying regions. Pray for safety for all those who are working or traveling outdoors. May God guide the authorities in their efforts to provide weather warnings, and may we remain attentive in adhering to the guidance provided.

Saturday, (Nov 29): Pray for the World – We pray for the peace in the world. Pray for nations and their leaders to find diplomatic resolutions that foster peace among countries. Pray for wars and conflicts to end. Pray for God's grace and goodness to overflow in this world that every person will turn to Him. Pray for the oppressed and marginalized, asking God to protect them, relieve their suffering, and bring them hope and freedom in Him.
