of eternal life,

through Jesus Christ.

We give you thanks and praise

Sunday, (Dec 7): As we enter the second Sunday of Advent, we are called to engage in deep, sincere confessions – beyond mere outward confessions – to genuinely turn away from sin and address sins, unhealthy patterns, and compromises in our lives. Pray for a repentance that results in visible transformation in actions, character, relationships, and priorities, shaping us to reflect Christ with humility and holiness. Pray for Christ's refining work to purify sin, renew weakness, and strengthen goodness in our hearts.

Monday, (Dec 8): Church – As we have stepped into the final month of the year 2025, may we take time to reflect upon the past year with gratitude for God's faithfulness, His constant presence, love, guidance, and provision through both joyful and challenging times. Pray for healing where there is pain, for joy where there is sorrow, and for peace where there is uncertainty. In this season of Advent, may our hearts grow increasingly grateful for God's greatest gift to send His one and only Son, our Lord Jesus, and may we be inspired to share the good news of our Lord Jesus with people around us.

Tuesday, (Dec 9): Pray for Christ's peace to fill the hearts of believers and for a stronger trust in God's presence as the Church anticipates His return. Pray for peace and reconciliation in relationships, families, friendships, churches, and communities, so that the Church embodies Christ's love as true peacemakers. Pray for global peace, particularly in conflict-affected nations, and for God's mercy on the oppressed, refugees, and victims of violence, as well as for Christ's light to illuminate situations where peace seems unattainable.

Wednesday, (Dec 10): Pray for the Nation: We give thanks for the passing of the Anti-Bully Bill 2025 in Dewan Rakyat, which aims to address bullying cases in educational institutions. Pray that this law instills confidence in children under 18 years old, ensuring their access to legal defence and protection. Pray for the new Chief Judge of Malaya, Hashim Hamzah, to have the discernment and wisdom needed to improve the justice delivery system. Pray that the Hajiji administration will focus on the Sabah Maju Jaya 2.0 development plan, set to launch in 2026, to promote comprehensive advancement in the state's economy, infrastructure, and the welfare of Sabahans.

Thursday, (Dec 11): TRAC – Pray and commit to the Lord all TRAC Churches. As churches recognize and observe the Advent season and prepare for Christmas, pray for renewal to take place in every TRAC Church. Pray for more people to come forward to profess their faith in Christ. For all the baptisms that will take place this Christmas, we pray for all to experience the presence of Christ in their lives. May we learn to make room in our hearts for Jesus. Let us allow Jesus to reign as King of Kings and Lord of Lords in our lives and in the life of all our churches.

Friday, (Dec 12): May God open our eyes to the needs of people in our community. Pray for those who are sick or in pain. May God touch upon them with His healing power, comfort them in their suffering and relieve their worry. Pray for those who are lonely and feel isolated, regardless of their age. Pray for God's constant presence with them. May He enable us, His people, to reach out to them with compassion, willing to listen to them with support. Pray for those who are marginalized. May they find their identity and assurance in God who loves and cares. May their voice be heard, their rights be protected and justice be advocated.

Saturday, (Dec 13): Pray for the World – We pray for the regions in Southeast Asia affected by recent weather, including Malaysia, Thailand, Indonesia, and Sri Lanka dealing with cyclone-induced floods and landslides, as well as the Philippines and Vietnam impacted by typhoons. Pray for God's comfort to be with everyone who has lost loved ones, their belongings, and livelihood. Pray for the safety and welfare of those who have been evacuated. Pray for their healing from the trauma that they have endured. Pray that assistance and support continue until they are able to return to their regular daily activities.
