Lord God,

We thank you for Your Son,

our Savior Jesus Christ,

of Jesus Christ.

We give you thanks and praise in

Jesus' name,

Sunday, (Dec 14): In this Advent, we express gratitude to God, recognizing Him as the true King who governs nations, the church, and our lives, and we trust in His sovereignty during our weaknesses. Pray for a discipling spirit, including patience and compassion, to guide others toward spiritual maturity in Christ, leading many to respond and take the step of baptism. Pray for pastors, leaders, and teachers to effectively share Jesus' teachings, ensuring they are actively lived out, not just understood.

Monday, (Dec 15): Church – As we open ourselves in this season of Advent to receive the gifts of Hope, Peace, Joy and Love that come from God through our Lord Jesus, may God inspire us to think of family, friends or people in communities who have yet to know our Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour. May we pray persistently for their salvation with confidence that it is God's desire for all to be saved. Pray that we will not be discouraged even if we do not see immediate results, as salvation belongs to God and His work. Pray that God will guide and enable us to seize the opportunity to share the good news of our Lord Jesus with them.

Tuesday, (Dec 16): Pray that the church will rediscover true joy rooted not in circumstances, but in Christ's presence and promise. Pray for members who are burdened, grieving, or spiritually tired—that God's joy will become their strength. Pray for the joy in serving others, especially in the outreach ministry, that the church reflects Christ's heart through generosity, hospitality, and compassion.

Wednesday, (Dec 17): Pray for the Nation: Pray for wisdom and tenacity for the Prime Minister and his cabinet ministers and senators to lead with integrity and humility, rejecting corruption while seeking the good of the people. Pray for God's protection of our nation against political extremism, harmful rhetoric, and actions that could create divisions based on race or religion. Pray that Malaysia Madani values, such as compassion, trust, and responsibility, should lead to effective policies that benefit the people and enhance institutional strength.

Thursday, (Dec 18): TRAC – Pray and commit to the Lord all TRAC Churches. As churches recognize and observe the Advent season and prepare for Christmas, pray for renewal to take place in every TRAC Church. Pray for more people to come forward to profess their faith in Christ. For all the baptisms that will take place this Christmas, we pray for all to experience the presence of Christ in their lives. May we learn to make room in our hearts for Jesus. Let us allow Jesus to reign as King of Kings and Lord of Lords in our lives and in the lives of all our churches.

Friday, (Dec 19): As many schools start the year-end holiday, we thank God for the gift of learning, reflecting on the experiences of this past school year, including personal growth and new friendships formed. We thank God for the dedication of teachers, parents, and guardians, as well as for the efforts of the students. May God bless them with a rejuvenating and peaceful time, filled with joy with family and friends during the holiday. May He also keep them safe from harm. May God grant them renewed strength and wisdom, enabling them to return to their studies or work with eager hearts.

Saturday, (Dec 20): Pray for the World – Pray for missionaries, families, and friends who are away from their homeland during Christmas, the season of togetherness. May God bridge the distance with His loving presence so that they may feel the warmth of God's love and that of their loved ones. May God watch over them, and provide them with good health and strength that they need for their daily lives. May they experience hope, peace, joy, and love that have been brought through our Lord Jesus and celebrate Christmas where they reside.
