Prayer for Fourth Sunday on Advent: Love

Lord God,

We thank you for Your Son,

our Savior Jesus Christ,

who is the Way.

We, who like sheep, have gone astray,

and have found the way to You through Jesus Christ,

who loves us an unconditional love.

We give You thanks and praise in Jesus' name,

because He lives and reigns with You,

in Your glory and in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Sunday, (Dec 21): O Heavenly Father, Creator of all generations and architect of time, we come before You with hearts full of awe and gratitude, as we meditate on the profound truths revealed in the first chapter of Matthew's Gospel. Pray for God's guidance to recognize His presence in daily life, nature, and among marginalized individuals, ensuring we do not take His presence for granted. Pray for Immanuel's sign to deliver us from sin and acknowledge our foolishness and fear from our own wrongdoings. Pray for God's guidance to shape our lives into ones that are pleasing to Him, empowering us to live righteously and embody His grace and peace.

Monday, (Dec 22): Church – We commit to the Lord, our Christmas worship service on Dec.25. Pray that many people would come to praise and give thanks to God for His goodness in sending His one and only Son, Jesus. May our hearts overflow with gratitude for His love. We are also grateful to God for 6 candidates for baptism, and in total, 7 people will be welcomed into our church membership. Pray for God's protection and health for them so that they will be able to participate this baptism and membership service. May we embrace them as our family in Christ, and may we continue to support and grow together in the Lord.

Tuesday, (Dec 23): Pray that churches will end the year faithful in teaching, loving in action, and united in mission, seeking God's guidance to renew vision, passion, and holiness among believers, leaders, and pastors. Pray for the church to continue trusting God is "Immanuel" and surrender fears, uncertainties, and unfilled hopes in 2025 to Him. Pray for peace within families, reconciliation in strained relationships, and healing from conflicts experienced in 2025.

Wednesday, (Dec 24): Pray for the Nation: Pray for a peaceful, safe, and respectful Christmas that fosters harmony and understanding among diverse faiths in our nation. Pray for wisdom, integrity, and compassion for national and state leaders during this season, and decisions and policies made will foster unity, justice, and the well-being of all citizens. Pray for peace and mutual respect among Malaysia's diverse races, cultures, and religions, fostering dialogue, wisdom, and goodwill to overcome misunderstandings, prejudice, and fear.

Thursday, (Dec 25): TRAC – Pray and commit to the Lord all TRAC Churches. As churches recognize and observe the Advent season and prepare for Christmas, pray for renewal to take place in every TRAC Church. Pray for more people to come forward to profess their faith in Christ. For all the baptisms that will take place this Christmas, we pray for all to experience the presence of Christ in their lives. May we learn to make room in our hearts for Jesus. Let us allow Jesus to reign as King of Kings and Lord of Lords in our lives and in the lives of all our churches.

Friday, (Dec 26): Pray for those who are not well. May God bring healing and comfort to them. May He strengthen their bodies, ease their pain, enable them to eat and provide them with rest. May He surround them with His loving presence and peace so that they may experience His presence as a source of hope and restoration. Pray for caregivers as well. May God grant them strength, patience and peace. May He also assist them in taking care of themselves. Pray for wisdom when they face difficult decisions to make.

Saturday, (Dec 27): Pray for the World – Pray for the families of those affected by the recent shooting occurred beside Bondi Beach in Sydney. May God's comfort, grace and strength be with them. Pray for those who are injured to experience healing and recovery. Pray for people in the community around Bondi beach and across the nation. Pray that God will grant them safety, comfort and peace as they experience grief, anxiety and trauma.
