Prayer For Confidence in God's Promise

Almighty Father,

Your word is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, discerning the thoughts and intentions of our hearts. You know us completely — our joys, our doubts, our longings, and our struggles.

Help us to approach You not with fear, but with confidence in Your grace. Teach us to trust that Your promises are true and that through faith in Jesus Christ we enter into Your rest. May we cease from our labours and rest in Your faithful love, knowing You hold us securely in Your care. We pray through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

We praise God that we got Sister Emily Dass to take the children's session. Pray for her as well as she prepares her sessions for the children and may our children also be blessed by the camp. Commit to the Lord all physical preparations for the camp.
