Prayer

O sweetest love of God, too little known,
whoever has found you will be at rest.

Let everything change, O my God,
that I may rest in you.

How sweet to me is your presence,
you who are the sovereign good!

I will draw near to you in silence,
and will uncover your feet,

that it may please you to unite
me with yourself,

making my soul your bride.

I will rejoice in nothing
until I am in your arms;

O Lord, I beseech you, leave me
not for a moment.

St John of the Cross (1542 – 1591)
