Prayer

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

*Where there is hatred,
let me sow love,*

Where there is injury, pardon,

Where there is doubt, faith,

Where there is despair, hope,

Where there is darkness, light,

Where there is sadness, joy.

*O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much
seek to be consoled as to console, not so much to be understood
as to understand,
not so much to be loved as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
it is in dying that we awake to eternal life.*

A prayer often associated with St Francis of Assisi

Sunday, (Sept 3) – Pray for a greater sense of appreciation and thankfulness for all that Jesus has done for us as we approach the Lord's Table today. Pray that we will truly experience the deep love of God not just in our minds but also in our hearts as well. Pray that no one will be hindered from responding to God's love and pray that God will remove all hurdles that people may have in coming to the Lord in faith. Pray that we will have a desire to share the Goodnews of Jesus wherever God has placed us. Pray that the way we live our lives as disciples will be a testimony to people.

Monday, (Sept 4) – Commit to the Lord the church leadership (both the LCEC and CG Leaders). Pray first and foremost that God will draw us into a deeper relationship with Him. Pray that God will keep the leaders united as we begin to seek God's direction for 2024 & 2025 and possibly leading up to our 125th Church anniversary in 2026. Pray for a discerning heart and spirit that we will only do that which God is leading us into. Pray for good relationships among church leaders as well.

Tuesday, (Sept 5) – Pray for the Holy Spirit to guide our decisions and turn our hearts to deeply desire God above all else today. Pray for God's wisdom, strength, and power to be constant within us so that we can be strong and courageous for the road ahead and avoid the snares and traps of temptations. Pray for genuine repentance for all those imprisoned and released from the bonds of sin, so that we can experience the joy and freedom of God's redemptive power in our lives and leave a redemptive imprint on the nation.

Wednesday, (Sept 6) – Pray for the Nation: Pray for a mindset shift in our Madani government that fosters unity, understanding, and collaboration among all political parties. Pray for the government's leadership to remain committed to advancing critical institutional reforms and fostering national unity. Pray for increased efforts to address the challenges of ethnic poverty, working towards a more equitable society, and strengthening the Ringgit so that people are not burdened with higher food prices.

Thursday, (Sept 7) – TRAC : Commit to the Lord the upcoming TRAC Joint Boards that will take place from the 8th - 10th September Pray for God's direction and guidance to be upon all Board Chairpersons. Pray for attentiveness to the promptings of the Holy Spirit in doing all that God intends to do through the various boards in TRAC. Pray for our TRAC President, Rev. Joshua Khong as he leads the entire conference. Pray that God will indeed give him clarity and that God will also surround him with people who may encourage and work alongside him.

Friday, (Sept 8) – Thanks be to God for the good healthcare system in Malaysia. May God continue to guide the authorities to further invest to improve and strengthen the system and the services to fulfil the needs of the nation. Pray that the health authorities will continue to be vigilant in providing update and relevant advices to the public. Pray also for the protection from the spread of dengue fever, whooping cough and influenza.

Saturday (Sept 9) – Pray for the World: As we hear more about the power being sought to be achieved forcibly by the threat of violence and weapons in many areas of the world, ask God for His forgiveness, mercy and intervention towards peace. Pray that God will inspire us with His love and compassion, help us recognize and repent of our egos and pride, and lead us with a desire towards global harmony, nonviolence and cooperation, away from the false security of war, violence and any weapons, and away from the destruction. Pray that the Spirit of God will empower Christians to shine His light as Christ's ambassadors in reconciliation and peacemaking.
