Prayer

*O our Saviour! of ourselves we cannot love you,
cannot follow you,
cannot become one with you,

but you came down that
we might love you,
you ascended that we might follow you,
you bound us close to you,
that we might be held fast to you.*

*Since you have loved us,
make us love you.*

*Since you found us when we were lost,
be yourself the way,
that we may find you
and be found in you
our only hope, and
our everlasting joy.*

Edward Pusey (1800-1882)

Sunday, (Nov 19) – Pray that God’s people would continue to build themselves up in the most holy faith that was once delivered to them, by taking delight in reading, meditating on and reflecting His Word as well as praying in the Holy Spirit constantly. Pray for God’s people to keep themselves in God’s love by constantly abiding in Christ and to eagerly await for him, who will bring us eternal life at his second coming. Pray that God’s people will show mercy to those who doubt the gospel and pull them out of the fire so they don’t perish.

Monday, (Nov 20) – Church Planning Retreat: Commit to the Lord the upcoming Church Planning Retreat that will take place from the 24th - 26th of November. Pray that as both the LCEC as well as the CG Leaders come together, we may be united in seeking and discerning God’s direction for our church. Pray that as leadership come together, we may once again reconnect with God and with one another. Pray for our leaders to be sensitive and attentive to the work of the Holy Spirit in our church and that we may learn to respond to God’s invitations to the church. Pray also for journey mercies as we travel to Cameron Highlands.

Tuesday, (Nov 21) – Pray for justice and redemption in this world, because our God of justice will bring peace and hope to those who are victims of injustice as they experience God’s love and compassion. Pray for many people who are poor in terms of financial needs, struggling to provide food for their families, or facing financial difficulties in seeking medical treatment or education. Pray for peace as our world is torn apart by war and violence, especially for those who are suffering emotionally and psychologically as a result of war and violence.

Wednesday, (Nov 22) – Pray for the Nation: Pray for the impending cabinet reshuffle, that capable ministers will be placed to address the challenges the weakening economy in the face of broadened US sanctions, depreciating ringgit and a rising costs crisis that plague the rakyat. Pray for the new Agong to have godly wisdom and a compassionate heart. Pray for rakyat to be vigilant to all weather-related information issued by relevant agencies, particularly MetMalaysia, so that they can plan their daily activities and avoid unwanted incidents caused by the Northeast Monsoon phenomenon.

Thursday, (Nov 23) – TRAC: 48th Session TRAC - As the 48th Session TRAC ends, pray for all pastors who will be going in transfer at the end of 2023. Pray for these pastors to be able to have closures in their respective churches and to move on to the church that God is sending them. Pray for God’s grace to be upon churches who would be experiencing a change of pastor. Pray for the Lord enablement for both the pastors and parishes to settle in with new changes. Continue to pray for the entire annual conferences as we move into 2024.

Friday, (Nov 24) – Pray that God will put in our hearts the names of family, friends or colleagues who have not yet come to know our Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour. As we unceasingly remember them in our prayers, may God grant us the opportunities and courage to share with them His love and good news. Pray that we will be sensitive to the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and that He will work through them and they will receive the greatest gift - the amazing grace of our Lord Jesus - salvation and eternal life in Him.

Saturday (Nov 25) – Pray for the World: Pray for persecuted Christians and churches in the world. We lift up all brothers and sisters who are facing persecution in many different places of the world, particularly children, new believers and those in prisons. May God protect each one of them from any danger and cover them under His wings. May He comfort them with His grace when they experience the hatred or intolerance of others, or when they feel lonely. Pray that God will provide their needs, sustain them in their faith, and fill their hearts with hope knowing that God will never leave them nor forsake them.
