Prayer

Loving God of
overflowing blessings,
You know us and
you see us and,
despite all that, you love us,
with an endurance and
a depth that we do not understand.

Remind us, God,
to trust in your love,
and let it shelter and
soothe us in all our need.

Encourage us to have hope
through your love,
and affirm that your love outlasts our troubles and will not let them overcome us.

Inspire us to persevere,
sustained by the strength of your love to build a life that honors you.

Rescue us from the difficulties of our world or inside ourselves that would take us apart from you.
Amen.

Sunday, (Dec 31): Thank you Lord for Jesus who is our greatest gift. Thank you God for loving us so deeply that You were willing to send Your one and only begotten Son to us. Pray that the message of Christmas will never be so familiar to us that we lose sight of the wonder and greatness of God's love. Renew within us a spirit of love that having your love, O God, we may in return love others just like you have loved us. Pray that God will give us more opportunities to share the love of Jesus to the people around us.

Monday, (Jan 1): Praise and give thanks to the Lord for His faithfulness in 2023. As we step into 2024 as a church, pray that God will continue to lead and guide us in all the ministries of the church. Pray that Jesus will continue to be at the center of our church. Pray that our Church, Klang Wesley to be submissive to the authority of Jesus. Commit to the Lord all church leaders and as well as our CG Leaders, that God will continue to make His love and His will known to them.

Tuesday, (Jan 2): Pray for life-changing prayers for strength in 2024 as the body of Christ, we ought to turn to God in times of need and ask for his guidance and strength so that we can accomplish all things through Christ who strengthens us (Philippians 4:13). Pray for strength and courage in adversity when we feel overwhelmed by our circumstances and pray that the Lord will grant us courage and strength to face challenges ahead, wherever we are (Joshua 1:9). Pray for power in difficult situations and to trust in the Lord with all our heart and lean not on our understanding; in all our ways submit to him, and he will make our paths straight (Proverbs 3:5-6).

Wednesday, (Jan 3): Pray for the Nation: Pray that the government will create realistic and practical 'exit plans' that include targeted skills development programs aligned with current market demands so that gig workers can find jobs in emerging sectors like e-commerce, electric vehicles, and other digital and tech-related sectors, as the Malaysian Employers Federation projects that gig workers will make up 50% of the workforce by 2030. Pray that people who have lost loved ones, homes, and livelihoods in the rapidly deteriorating flood-affected states of Johor, Sabah, Kelantan, Terengganu, Pahang, and Selangor would find comfort, peace, shelter, and community support. Pray for intensified efforts to address the vulnerabilities in country's cyber security in light of recent hack of the Social Security Organisation (SOC SO), which may have resulted in the leakage of personal information that enabled rampant scamming of bank accounts.

Thursday, (Jan 4): TRAC: Commit to the Lord all District Superintendents. Pray for the Lord's guidance to be upon them as they carry out their responsibilities in the District. Pray for good relationship to be fostered between the DS and the District Leaders. Pray also that churches within the District will learn to work together for God's work. Commit to the Lord, the churches that are without pastoral appointments in 2024. Pray for strength to be upon the church leaders as they work with their respective District Superintendents.

Friday, (Jan 5): Pray for all those who are in authority and power, especially kings and leaders everywhere, the ability to rule their nations with justice, peace and dignity in all facets of their lives (1 Timothy 2:2-3). Pray that the church will continue to bring hope in 2024, regardless of what else is going on in our world as we ought to remember that this brief, momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen – for the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal (2 Corinthians 4:17-18). Pray for individuals and communities of faith that we are called to pray for others in our world who are enduring challenges and difficult situations (1 Timothy 2:1).

Saturday (Jan 6): Pray for the World: Pray for the divine intervention to reach an agreement for a “temporary ceasefire” between the military junta and the three ethnic arm groups in Laukkai district of Kokang, northern Myanmar as the civil war intensified. Pray for both Israel and Palestine to meet the Prince of Peace, as it is only through Him alone, that genuine peace can be achieved. Pray for the victims of worldwide natural disasters and calamities that they may find solace, strength, encouragement, patience and wisdom in overcoming their many unspeakable losses – material, physical, emotional and psychological- and that they may regain their fragmented lives.
